

5. Psalm 1 The Way of the Righteous

030707

♩=120

1. We have a per - fect bles - sed - ness: we'll nev - er run a - stray with
 2. We'll stand like ce - dar trees that grow up - on the flow - ing shore; yet
 3. On judg - ment day, such folks won't stand, un - right - eous as they are. Nor com - pa - nies of un - just men nor stand in sin - ners' way. We'll ne - ver mount the in due sea - son bear good fruit. Our leaf will fade no more. Yes, we shall ev - er in as - sem - blies of the just will wick - ed men ap - pear. The way of right - eous scorn - er's throne, we'd ra - ther seek de - light in Yah - weh's law: we me - di - tate up - pros - per well. The e - vil are not so. Those wick - ed folks, like cast off chaff, the folks is clear, the Fa - ther's seen and known; just as the ways of wi - cked men will

6

11

16

- on it day and night. For Yah - weh knows the way of the right - eous but the wind drives to and fro. For Yah - weh knows the way of the right - eous but the soon be o - ver - thrown. For Yah - weh knows the way of the right - eous but the way of the wrong comes to naught, comes to naught, comes to naught.

20

 way of the wrong comes to naught, comes to naught, comes to naught.
 way of the wrong comes to naught, comes to naught, comes to naught.