And you shall love Yahweh your Elohim, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your might. And have these words, which I command you this day, be upon your heart. And you shall teach them diligently to your children and speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you retire and when you arise. And you shall bind them for a sign upon your hand and let them be frontlets between your eyes. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and upon your gates: And you should love your neighbor as yourself.

WE HEAR THE WORD AND TEACHING

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in your sight, O YHWH, my strength, and my redeemer.

Whenever the ark set out, Moshe said, “Arise, O YHWH, and let your enemies be scattered; and let them that hate you flee before you!” (Numbers 10:35)

THE WORDS OF THE PROPHET

(The message is preached.)

(After the teaching, the Leader recites:)

When the ark rested, Moshe said, “Return, O YHWH, to the ten thousand thousands of Yisrael!” (Numbers 10:35)
